On January 12, 2010 at 4:53PM a 7.0 earthquake shook Haiti, killing more than 250,000 people and leaving no Haitian unaffected. On January 16, 2011, over 15 organizations will join forces to commemorate the victims of the devastating earthquake with reflection and memorial— “Nou Pap Janm Bliye/We Will Never Forget.” We will remember the lives affected and reflect on a collective action for Haiti and Haitians in Massachusetts.

All concerned citizens, schools, health care providers and community organizations are encouraged to come to show solidarity with the Haitian people.
